IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR FREDERICK COUNTY,
IN EQUITY,

GROVER E. BARRICK, et al.

tr

No. 14724 Equity.

HARRY W. BARRICK, et al.

VS.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The petition of Grove E. Barrick, one of the complaints, respectually represents:

- 1. That on the 31st day of July, 1942, your petitioner and others, filed their bill of complaint, in the above cause for the sale of the resl estate of the late Charles J. Barrick, and Maurice V. Barrick and others, of Hagerstown, Maryland, were made parties defendants.
- 2. That before his answer was filed, the said Maurice V. Barrick, departed this life, intestate, on or about the 2nd, day of September, 1942, leaving surviving him, as his only heirs at law, his widow, Ruth Barrick, one of said defendants, and an infant daughter, Marion Adelle Barrick, aged about 14 years, residing at No. 40 N. Cannon Avenue, in Hagerstown, Maryland, with her parents.
- 3. That your petitioner is advised that it is necessary to have said infant made a party to these proceedings.

Wherefore he prays for an order of Court authorizing said infant defendant to be made a party defendant on this cause and that a subpoena in the usual form be issued for said infant.  $\frac{\text{H. K. DeLauter}}{\text{Sol. for Petitioner}}$
